Funes confirms Obama's visit for March 22 and 23

By Agencia EFE – 11 hours ago

San Salvador, Feb 7 (EFE).- The President of El Salvador, Mauricio Funes, confirmed today that the visit of his U.S. colleague, Barack Obama, to the country will be on March 22 and 23.

Funes explained in an interview on the local TV Channel 33 that the U.S. President will arrive on the 22nd and will leave on the 23rd without giving details of his agenda.

Obama will visit El Salvador as part of a tour that will take him to Brazil and Chile in his first trip as Head of State to Central America and these two South American countries.

The Salvadoran Chancellor, Hugo Martinez, declared today that El Salvador is looking into the possibility of asking Obama for a "definite immigration solution" for Salvadoran nationals living in that country covered by the immigration benefits of the Temporary Protected Status (TPS). Among the issues the two leaders will address, he mentioned the fight against poverty, security, immigration, measures to be taken to face the climate change and trade.
